

As licensed radio amateur station/operator WA6MME for over 44 years I am concerned that any change to the current BPL regulations could increase interference to our service and diminish our capacity to provide emergency communications during natural or terrorist caused national disasters!